

California Wine Winners: The Best of the 2000 Judgings (2001)

In California Wine Winners 2001, the wines, organized and listed by variety and by winery, have been tasted by professional wine judges, with gold, silver, or bronze medals awarded to the best. The book identifies which medals each bottle received, with the most awarded wines first. These annual competitions are the most important events in the industry and have the cooperation of wineries.
