

Secret La Salle Monument and Historical Marker

This is the story of Dr. Lee W. Woodards amazing and important historical discovery that the Heavener, Oklahoma Rune Stone Monument does not derive of Pre-Columbus Vikings, as long erroneously supposed, but is a 1687 memorial by a brilliant German-English artist and linguist named James (Jimmy, Gemme) Hiens, to secretly name and honor the great French explorer, Robert Cavalier de La Salle, telling, among other things, that explorers birth and death dates and his assassination and burial location, which was not in Texas, as long incorrectly assumed, but in what Woodard calls the French Quadrangle of Eastern Oklahoma at Poteau River, near Poteau, OK. 262 pages, many pictures and illustrations.
